

catastrophe, are applicable and may be applied during the effective period of an official proclamation of the Governor of this State declaring a portion or all of the particular area to be within an emergency area, actual or threatened. The provisions of this section do not qualify or reduce powers of emergency management [and civil defense] agencies which for their effectiveness do not depend upon the existence of an emergency or upon a proclamation by the Governor.

Article 41 - Governor - Executive and Administrative Departments

4-105.

(a) The Division of Correction is established and continued as the same Department of Correctional Services hitherto existing. The Division of Correction shall be part of the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services. The Division of Correction shall have the powers, duties, responsibilities and functions provided in the laws of this State for the Department of Correctional Services. All references in this Code, in any other laws of this State, or in ordinances, resolutions, rules, regulations, legal actions, directives, or documents to the Department of Correctional Services or the Department of Correction or the Board of Correction, shall be deemed to mean the Division of Correction. From and after July 1, 1970, all rights, powers, duties, obligations and functions heretofore conferred upon or exercised by the Department of Correctional Services shall be transferred to and be exercised by the Division of Correction, subject to the authority of the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services as set forth in §§ 4-102, 4-103, and 4-104 of this article or elsewhere in this Code.

(b) The Division of Parole and Probation is established and continued as the same Department of Parole and Probation hitherto existing. The Division of Parole and Probation shall be part of the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services. The Division of Parole and Probation shall have the powers, duties, responsibilities and functions provided in the laws of this State for the Department of Parole and Probation. All references in this Code, in any other laws of this State, or in ordinances, resolutions, rules, regulations, legal actions, directives, or documents to the Department of Parole and Probation shall be deemed to mean the Division of Parole and Probation. From and after July 1, 1970, all rights, powers, duties, obligations and functions heretofore conferred upon or exercised by the Department of Parole and Probation shall be transferred to and be exercised by the Division of Parole and Probation subject to the authority of the Secretary of Public Safety and Correctional Services as set forth in §§ 4-102, 4-103, and 4-104 of this article or elsewhere in this Code.
