

30, except the proviso in that sentence about a judge of the Orphans' Court in Prince George's County.

Subsection (a)(2) of this section is revised to apply generally rather than only to officials in Prince George's County.

In subsection (b)(2)(ii) of this section, the word "superintendent" is substituted for the former obsolete word "keeper", to refer to an individual who supervises a penitentiary.

The second sentence of former Art. 10, § 27, which specified that the provisions of § 27 could not be interpreted to prohibit admission of sheriffs, wardens, superintendents, or their deputies to the Bar, is deleted as surplusage.

The prohibition, in the first sentence of former Art. 10, § 30, against practice by a judge of the Orphans' Court in Prince George's County is deleted as inconsistent with the later enacted proviso in the same sentence that allowed a judge of the Orphans' Court in Prince George's County "elected to serve a term commencing after June 1, 1965" to practice law in matters outside the jurisdiction of an orphans' court. That proviso is revised in ET § 2-109.

Defined terms: "Bar" § 10-101
"Court" § 10-101 "Lawyer" § 10-101
"Practice law" § 10-101
