

VETOES

Speaker of the House of Delegates
State House
Annapolis, Maryland 21401

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed House Bill 677.

This bill is almost identical to Senate Bill 417. However, House Bill 677 allows a delay of execution of Judgement pending appeals and other possible relief.

Senate Bill 417, which was passed by the General Assembly and signed by me on May 19, 1989, accomplishes the same purpose, without allowing these delays. Therefore, it is not necessary for me to sign House Bill 677.

Sincerely,
William Donald Schaefer
Governor

House Bill No. 677

AN ACT concerning

Restitution

FOR the purpose of subrogating the State to a victim's right to recover restitution if the victim is given an award under the Criminal Injuries Compensation Act; removing a restriction on where restitution may be paid; defining a certain term; requiring that allowing a court to order restitution under certain circumstances; requiring a court to state in a certain manner the court's reasons for not ordering restitution under certain circumstances; providing that an order of restitution constitutes a certain judgment; providing that the termination of restitution or probation does not affect a certain judgment; requiring that certain restitution orders be made a condition of parole under certain circumstances; requiring that certain orders of restitution be indexed and recorded in a certain way; providing that a judgment of restitution constitutes a lien on the real property of the defendant under certain circumstances; providing that a victim or other person may not execute on certain orders of restitution indexed and recorded as judgments under certain circumstances; requiring that certain restitution orders of certain persons released from Patuxent Institution be made a condition of parole or
