

(2) KEEP A RECORD THAT THE INDIVIDUAL PASSED THE EXAMINATION; AND

(3) ISSUE TO THE INDIVIDUAL A CERTIFICATE THAT STATES THAT THE INDIVIDUAL PASSED THE EXAMINATION AND THAT SETS FORTH:

(I) THE FULL NAME OF THE INDIVIDUAL;

(II) THE TERMINATION DATE OF THE CERTIFICATE, AS PROVIDED UNDER ITEM (1) OF THIS SUBSECTION;

(III) A CERTIFICATE NUMBER ASSIGNED BY THE BOARD TO THE INDIVIDUAL; AND

(IV) THE SIGNATURES OF THE CHAIRMAN AND SECRETARY OF THE BOARD, UNDER SEAL OF THE BOARD.

(F) RIGHTS ON FAILURE OF EXAMINATION.

IF AN INDIVIDUAL TAKES AND FAILS A FUNDAMENTALS OF ENGINEERING EXAMINATION UNDER THIS SECTION, THE INDIVIDUAL SHALL HAVE THE SAME RIGHTS REGARDING NOTICE, REVIEW PROCEDURES, AND REEXAMINATION PROVIDED TO AN APPLICANT UNDER §§ 14-308 AND 14-309 OF THIS SUBTITLE.

REVISOR'S NOTE: This section is new language substituted for former Art. 75 1/2, § 2(d), § 12(c), the second sentence of (b)(1), and, as they related to an engineer-in-training, (a) and (e), the second sentence and, as they related to an engineer-in-training, the third and fourth sentences of § 13(a), the second and third sentences of § 14(a), and the third sentence and, as they related to an engineer-in-training, the first and fourth sentences of § 15(a).

On analysis, the Business Occupations Article Review Committee found that the substantive effect of all of these former provisions merely was to authorize an individual who meets certain qualifications to take 1 of the 2 required engineering examinations (the fundamentals of engineering examination) at an earlier time than would otherwise be allowed. The Committee also found that the former provisions were unnecessarily complicated and awkward. In particular, the Committee found that their inadvertent emphasis on the individual who passed the examination tended to lead the reader to the erroneous impression that, if an individual were registered as an engineer-in-training, the individual was licensed to practice at least some aspect of engineering, even without the supervision otherwise required for an unlicensed individual under § 14-303 of this subtitle.
