

bar and in the main dining facilities where the majority of the meals are served and consumed in the licensed premises (whether enclosed or opened, partitioned or otherwise partly separated from the main bar or the usual serving area within these premises for the sale of alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises and not part of the premises where the major portion of meals are served and consumed in these licensed premises) for the sale of alcoholic beverages for consumption off the licensed premises, the annual fee for this license is $1,725; and a license holder under this subsection may not sell alcoholic beverages for consumption off the premises from any portion of these premises other than from the main bar, or the usual place maintained for sale of alcoholic beverages for consumption on the premises and where the major portion of the meals are consumed in these premises, unless the annual license fee of $1,725 is paid.

The number of licenses which are permitted to have any off-sale privileges referred to in this section are limited to those licenses having the permit and facilities [at the time of the effective date of this act] ON MAY 28, 1969.

For the purpose of this subsection a restaurant means any establishment located in a permanent building with ample space and accommodations commonly known as a restaurant where hot meals are habitually prepared, sold and served to the public during the hours it is regularly open for business.

It shall have at least the minimum sanitary facilities required for an establishment by the regulations of the county health department and shall meet the minimum health requirements of these rules and regulations. It shall have a dining area or areas with sufficient tables, chairs or booths to comfortably seat and accommodate patrons.

The establishment shall be equipped with a kitchen having complete facilities and utensils for preparing hot and cold meals to the public.

There shall be employed a sufficient number of cooks, waiters or waitresses to serve the number of patrons provided for in the dining area or areas.

Each restaurant shall maintain and display a menu advertising the serving of a variety of hot meals. There shall be on the premises at all times sufficient food to fill orders made from the menu.

Any interruption of restaurant facilities for any reason must be reported to the board promptly.

Any drug, candy or confectionery store may not be construed to be a restaurant.
