Article 26A - Criminal Injuries Compensation Act

3-

~~(b) The term of office of each such member shall be five years, except that the members first appointed shall serve for terms of five years, four years and three years respectively. Any member appointed to fill a vacancy occurring otherwise than by expiration of a term shall be appointed for the remainder of the unexpired terms.~~

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Obsolete language in Article 26A, § 3(b).

Occurred: The Criminal Injuries Compensation Board was created by Ch. 455, Acts of 1968. Language became obsolete upon expiration of the initial terms of the original members of the Board.

12.

(e) In determining the amount of an award, the Board members[,] shall determine whether, because of his conduct, the victim of such crime contributed to the infliction of his injury, and the Board members shall reduce the amount of the award or reject the claim altogether, in accordance with such determination; provided, however, that the Board members may disregard for this purpose the responsibility of the victim for his own injury where the record shows that such responsibility was attributable to efforts by the victim to prevent a crime or an attempted crime from occurring in his presence or to apprehend a person who had committed a crime in his presence or had, in fact, committed a felony.
