412.

(b) Except as provided under [subsection (d)] SUBSECTION (F) of this section, a person found guilty of murder in the first degree shall be sentenced to death, imprisonment for life, or imprisonment for life without the possibility of parole. The sentence shall be imprisonment for life unless: (1) (i) the State notified the person in writing at least 30 days prior to trial that it intended to seek a sentence of death, and advised the person of each aggravating circumstance upon which it intended to rely, and (ii) a sentence of death is imposed in accordance with § 413; or (2) the State notified the person in writing at least 30 days prior to trial that it intended to seek a sentence of imprisonment for life without the possibility of parole under § 412 or § 413 of this article.

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Erroneous internal reference in Article 27, § 412(b).

Occurred: As a result of the concurrent codification of Chs. 237 and 626, Acts of 1987, both of which added new subsection (d) to Article 27, § 412.

443.

(h) The Superintendent of the Maryland State Police or his duly authorized agent or agents shall revoke an issued pistol and revolver dealer's license, by written notification forwarded to the licensee, under any of the following circumstances:

(1) When it is discovered false information or statements have been supplied or made in an application required by this section.

(2) If the licensee is convicted of a crime of violence, in this State or elsewhere, or of any of the provisions of this subtitle, or is a fugitive from justice, or is [an] A habitual drunkard, or is addicted to or [an] A habitual user of narcotics, barbiturates or amphetamines, or has spent more than thirty consecutive days in any medical institution for treatment of a mental disorder or disorders, unless the licensee produces a physician's certificate, issued subsequent to the last period of institutionalization, certifying that the licensee is capable of possessing a pistol or revolver without undue danger to himself or herself, or to others.
