

Whoever attempts to commit any of the crimes defined by this subtitle shall be guilty of a felony [and] AND, upon conviction, be liable to one half the punishment prescribed for the completed crime. In addition to the acts which constitute an attempt to commit a crime under the laws of this State, the solicitation or incitement of another to commit any of the crimes defined by this subtitle not followed by the commission of the crime, the collection or assemblage of any materials with the intent that the same are to be used then or at a later time in the commission of such crime, or the entry, with or without permission, of a building, enclosure or other premises of another with the intent to commit any such crime therein or thereon shall constitute an attempt to commit such crime.

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Omitted comma in Article 27, § 538.

Occurred: Prior to the 1957 codification of the Annotated Code of Maryland.

551.

(d) (4) Upon the expiration of the order sealing the [affidavit] AFFIDAVIT, the affidavit shall be:

(i) Unsealed; and

(ii) Delivered within 15 days to:

1. The person from whom the property was taken; or

2. If that person is not present on the premises at the time of delivery, the person apparently in charge of the premises from which the property was taken.

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Omitted comma in Article 27, § 551(d)(4).

Occurred: Ch. 679, Acts of 1988.

562B.

Every person who obtains or attempts to obtain by extortion a sum of money, real or personal property, or any thing of value of $300 or more from any person is guilty of a felony, and upon being convicted thereof, shall be sentenced to imprisonment for not more than ten years or fined not more than $5,000, or both. If the sum of money, property, or thing of value is under $300, the person is guilty of a misdemeanor [and] AND, upon being convicted thereof, shall be sentenced to not more than 18 months