

Occurred: Ch. 110, Acts of 1988.

12J.

The Attorney General shall:

(1) Designate an assistant to receive from employees any disclosure of information the privacy or confidentiality of which is protected pursuant to [Article 76A - Public Information] TITLE 10, SUBTITLE 6 OF THE STATE GOVERNMENT ARTICLE;

(2) Investigate any allegation of illegality or impropriety made by an employee pursuant to a disclosure of information the privacy or confidentiality of which is protected pursuant to [Article 76A - Public Information] TITLE 10, SUBTITLE 6 OF THE STATE GOVERNMENT ARTICLE;

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Obsolete cross-reference in Article 64A, § 12J(1) and (2).

Occurred: As a result of Ch. 284, Acts of 1984, which repealed Article 76A and recodified the provisions relating to confidentiality of records in Title 10, Subtitle 6 of the State Government Article.

18.

(f) The Secretary shall control all examinations and may designate as special examiners any officers or employees of this State or any other person not in the service [or] OF this State to conduct and hold such examinations as the Secretary may direct and to make return and report thereof to him. The Secretary shall have power to review the findings in all such reports, and may order new examinations if he deems such action desirable. The Secretary may at any time substitute any other person in the place of any person so designated and may himself conduct such examinations without designating special examiners.

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Publishing error in Article 64A, § 18(f).

Occurred: 1979 Replacement Volume of Volume 5B of the Annotated Code of Maryland. Correction by the Michie Company in the 1988 Replacement Volume of Volume 6 of the Annotated Code of Maryland is validated by this Act.
