12-209.

(a) Any aggrieved party to a hearing may appeal from a decision or order of the Administration as follows:

(1) If the matter concerns the license of the party to drive and the party is a resident of this State, to the circuit court for the county in which the party resides;

(2) If the matter concerns any other license or privilege of the party, to the circuit court for the county in which the principal place of business of the party in this State is located;

(3) If the party is a nonresident motorist, to the circuit court for the county in which the party was convicted of the violation to which the matter relates; and

(4) If not otherwise provided in this section or elsewhere in the Maryland Vehicle Law, to the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County.

(b) The Administrative Procedure Act shall govern in an appeal.

(c) Except as provided in § 16-205.1 of this article, if an appeal is filed in a case by an aggrieved licensee, the Administration shall grant a stay of its decision or order for not more than [60] 120 days, unless it appears to the Administration that substantial and immediate harm could result to the licensee or others if the license or privilege is continued pending appeal.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect October 1, 1993.

Approved April 26, 1993.
