

Natural Resources Article, that are unfunded as of February 15, 1994 shall be no longer eligible for funding. By January 31, 1994, the Department of Natural Resources shall submit with the budget details a list of funded projects and those projects no longer eligible for funding for which the authorization will expire on February 15, 1994. Nothing in this section precludes funding authorization for any project at a date subsequent to the enactment of this Act.

SECTION 20. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That, notwithstanding any other provision of law, for fiscal year 1994, in every case in which a defendant is found guilty, enters a plea of guilt or nolo contendere, or is given probation before judgment for an offense under the Motor Vehicle Law that is punishable by imprisonment or for any other criminal offense, including cases in which the defendant is represented by the Office of Public Defender, the District Court and the circuit courts shall require the defendant to pay an additional court cost of $5. The court cost imposed under this section shall be in addition to any other court costs imposed in the District Court and circuit courts. For fiscal year 1994, the court may not waive any court cost including the court cost imposed under this section unless the defendant establishes indigency as provided in the Maryland Rules. The funds collected under this section shall be remitted to the Comptroller and credited to the General Fund.

SECTION 21. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That, for fiscal year 1994, notwithstanding the provisions of § 5-903 of the Natural Resources Article, the 25% limit on the use of the State's share of Program Open Space funds for capital improvements on land owned by the State may be exceeded in accordance with action taken in the Fiscal Year 1994 Budget Bill.

SECTION 22. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That, for fiscal year 1994, notwithstanding any other provision of law, the Maryland Legal Services Corporation shall pay $500,000 from funds received from the Interest on Lawyers Trust Account (IOLTA) program, as provided by § 10-303 of the Business Occupations and Professions Article, to the Office of the Public Defender to defray any costs of Children in Need of Assistance (CINA) cases. These funds may be made available to the Office of the Public Defender by approved budget amendment.

SECTION 23. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That, for fiscal year 1994, notwithstanding any other provision of law, any funds collected in accordance with the provisions of § 17-222 of the State Finance and Procurement Article, relating to liquidated damages for failure to comply with prevailing wage law, may be used to proportionately offset any funds transferred from capital projects by budget amendment to support the costs of the Prevailing Wage Unit of the Division of Labor and Industry in the Department of Licensing and Regulation.

SECTION 24. ~~22.~~ 23. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That if any provision of this Act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid for any reason in a court of competent jurisdiction, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or any other application of this Act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application, and for this purpose the provisions of this Act are declared severable.

SECTION 4. ~~25.~~ ~~23.~~ 24. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect June 1, 1993.
