[(m)] This section shall not apply to Baltimore City nor to Allegany, Anne Arundel, Baltimore, Charles, Garrett, Harford, and St. Mary's Counties, in all of which jurisdictions such licenses shall not be issued.]

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

This section is reorganized to place all counties and Baltimore City in the standard alphabetical arrangement. The exclusionary subsection, (m), is repealed because each county is mentioned in the body of the section, with jurisdictions that do not have a Class B (beer) license so noted.

In reorganizing, a conflict between the provisions of former subsection (b) — new subsection (c) — and (m) arose concerning Anne Arundel County and its Class BR license. In a letter dated June 15, 1992, Anne Arundel County Board of License Commissioners Chairman Thomas E. Riffin advised that the Class BR license was in error and requested its removal. The Class BR license in Anne Arundel County is a mistake that occurred in Chapter 614 of the Acts of 1961 and is proposed for deletion.

Washington County continues to charge the standard license fee ($50) for its license, as now noted in subsection (w). The standard license fee is removed from subsection (a) because it applied only to one jurisdiction, Washington County.

Because of potential confusion over the alcoholic beverage license fees for Talbot County, subsection (v) (2) has been added to the law.
