DRAFTER'S NOTE:

This section is reorganized to place all counties and Baltimore City in the standard alphabetical arrangement. The exclusionary subsection, (o), is repealed because each county is mentioned in the body of the section, with jurisdictions that do not have a Class D (beer) license so noted.

In reorganizing, a conflict between the provisions of subsections (c) and (o) arose concerning Anne Arundel County and its Class BT and BTM licenses. In a letter dated June 15, 1992, Anne Arundel County Board of License Commissioners Chairman Thomas E. Riffin advised that the Class BT and BTM licenses were in error and requested their removal. The Class BT and BTM licenses in Anne Arundel County are a mistake that occurred in Chapter 614 of the Acts of 1961.

In Talbot County, the provisions of § 206 of this article permit the Talbot County Council to enact retail alcoholic beverages laws for that county; thus, subsection (v)(2).
