

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That in addition to the amount authorized under Article 73B, § 1-304(b)(1) of the Code, for fiscal year 1994 the Board of Trustees may pay up to 2/10 of 1 percent of the payroll of the members to the expense funds to provide for the administration and operation of each system in accordance with Article 73B, § 1-304(c) of the Code. If additional moneys authorized under this section are not paid in fiscal year 1994, the Board of Trustees may pay the amount of additional moneys authorized but not paid, in fiscal year 1995.

~~SECTION 2. 3.~~ AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1993. It shall remain effective for a period of 2 years and, at the end of June 30, 1995, with no further action required by the General Assembly, this Act shall be abrogated and of no further force and effect.

Approved May 27, 1993.

CHAPTER 430

(Senate Bill 354)

AN ACT concerning

Judges Retirement Allowances – Minor Children and Designated Beneficiaries

FOR the purpose of authorizing minor children of a judge or former judge to receive certain retirement allowance benefits under certain circumstances; authorizing a judge or former judge who does not have a spouse or minor child at retirement to elect an optional form of retirement allowance; and generally relating to retirement allowance benefits for judges and their minor children or designated beneficiaries.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,

Article 73B – Pensions

Section 9-104

Annotated Code of Maryland

(1988 Replacement Volume and 1992 Supplement)

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the Laws of Maryland read as follows:

Article 73B – Pensions

9-104.

(a) A judge, after termination of service, shall be paid the retirement allowance provided in the contributory plan or the noncontributory plan, until the death of the judge.
