

(3) (I) ON THE DEATH OF A RETIREE WHOSE DESIGNATED BENEFICIARY HAS PREDECEASED THE RETIREE OR WHO HAS NOT SELECTED AN OPTION, THE PORTION OF THE ALLOWANCE THAT IS DUE FOR THE MONTH IN WHICH THE RETIREE DIES SHALL BE PAID TO THE RETIREE'S ESTATE.

(II) ON THE DEATH OF A DESIGNATED BENEFICIARY WHO IS RECEIVING PAYMENTS FOR LIFE, THE PORTION OF THE ALLOWANCE THAT IS DUE FOR THE MONTH IN WHICH THE BENEFICIARY DIES SHALL BE PAID TO THE BENEFICIARY'S ESTATE.

(4) IF A RETIREE ELECTS TO CHANGE A DESIGNATED BENEFICIARY, THE ALLOWANCE SHALL BE RECOMPUTED ON THE VALUE OF THE BALANCE IN THE RESERVES AT THE TIME THE CHANGE IN BENEFICIARY IS MADE A RETIREE WHO HAS DESIGNATED A BENEFICIARY UNDER THIS SUBSECTION MAY NOT CHANGE THE DESIGNATED BENEFICIARY.

(F) (H) An election required or permitted to be made under this subtitle by a judge or a former judge is binding on the judge and on the judge's spouse.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect October 1, 1993.

Approved May 27, 1993.

CHAPTER 431

(Senate Bill 362)

AN ACT concerning

Dental Hygienists - ~~General~~ Supervision

FOR the purpose of ~~allowing a dental hygienist to practice dental hygiene under the general supervision of a dentist in certain places~~ authorizing the State Board of Dental Examiners to waive the supervision requirements for dental hygienists under certain circumstances; authorizing the Board to conduct certain public informational meetings and inspections under certain circumstances; requiring the Board to maintain certain records; requiring certain changes to be reported to the Board; requiring the Board to take certain actions on applications for waivers of supervision requirements for dental hygienists within certain time frames; deeming the acceptance of certain applications under certain circumstances; prohibiting a dental hygienist from owning or operating a dental practice or a dental hygiene practice; defining certain terms; and generally relating to dental hygienists, dentistry, and ~~general~~ supervision.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,

Article - Health Occupations

Section 4-101 and 4-308(d) and (e)

Annotated Code of Maryland