

(b) (1) Except as provided in [subsection] SUBSECTIONS (C) AND (g) of this section, any county or group of 2 or more counties may set an additional fee of up to $25 for each license.

(2) The proceeds shall be used to fund domestic violence programs.

SECTION 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That Section 2 of this Act is contingent on the taking effect of the termination provision specified in Section 2 of Chapter 355 of the Acts of the General Assembly of 1992. If that termination provision takes effect, the provisions of Section 1 of this Act that relate to § 2-404(b) of the Family Law Article shall be void. This Act may not be interpreted to have any effect on that termination provision.

SECTION 4. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1993.

May 27, 1993

The Honorable R. Clayton Mitchell, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Delegates
State House
Annapolis, Maryland 21401

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed House Bill 325.

This bill would permit the use of a resale certificate for cash, check, or credit card sales of more than $200 if the goods are delivered directly to the buyer's retail place of business.

Senate Bill 10, which was passed by the General Assembly and signed by me on April 1, 1993, accomplishes the same purpose. Therefore, it is not necessary for me to sign House Bill 325.

Sincerely,
William Donald Schaefer
Governor

House Bill No. 325

AN ACT concerning

Sales and Use Tax - Resale Certificates - ~~Delivered Goods~~

FOR the purpose of altering the administration of the resale exemption under the sales and use tax for certain sales; making this Act an emergency measure; and generally relating to the alteration of the administration of the resale exemption under the sales and use tax.
