MARYLAND HIGHER EDUCATION COMMISSION

In response to the high concentration of campuses in the Baltimore region, magnitude of the State's investment in higher education in the region ($303.4 million in FY 1992, supporting State, local and private institutions of higher education, as well as student financial aid) and projected minimal growth in the State's ability to support higher education, the budget committees ~~direct~~ request the Maryland Higher Education Commission to examine and report on issues relating to the cost and quality of and access to higher education in the region. The report shall be presented by October 1, 1993 and shall be undertaken in cooperation with the University of Maryland System, Morgan State University, Baltimore City Community College, the Baltimore County Community
