

liquor by the drink within the Center, from one or more outlets, for consumption on the licensed premises to any person or persons authorized by the proper authority to use the Center. The application for this license shall be filed and processed in the normal manner.

(ii) The policies of the Center that pertain to the sponsorship of events where alcoholic beverages may be sold shall be filed with the application.

(iii) This license shall be issued to the individual authorized by the University College Center of Adult Education of the University of Maryland to act for it, assume all responsibility, and be subject to all the penalties, conditions, and restrictions imposed upon licenses under this article. The individual shall be a resident and registered voter of Prince George's County[, Maryland]. All profits from the sale of alcoholic beverages shall be deposited into the food services income fund. The residency requirements specified in § 40 of this article as it pertains to Prince George's County do not apply to Class B/ECF licenses.

(iv) The Board of License Commissioners shall prescribe regulations pertaining to the manner of dispensing alcoholic beverages, and the hours and days of sale authorized in § 103 of this article. The licensee is subject to all the provisions of this article and to the regulations of the Board of License Commissioners [for Prince George's County].

(v) The annual fee is $3,500.

(9) (i) In addition to the classes herein provided, there is a special Class B license known as Class B-CI.

(ii) The Class B-CI license shall be issued only to country inns.

(iii) A "country inn" means:

1. An establishment for the accommodation of the public equipped with a dining room with facilities for preparing and serving regular meals, wherein the average daily receipts from the sale of foods exceed the average daily receipts from the sale of alcoholic beverages, and which is located within:

A. A building that appears on the National Register of Historic Places; or

B. A building that has historic, cultural, or architectural significance because it:

I. Has character, interest, or value as part of the development, heritage, or cultural characteristics of the county, State, or nation; or

II. Is the site of a significant historic event; or

III. Is identified with a person or a group of persons who influenced society; or

IV. Exemplifies the cultural, economic, industrial, social, political, or historical heritage of the community; or