"Unclassified service" § 1-101

GENERAL REVISOR'S NOTE:

As originally enacted, former Art. 64A specified various positions that were excluded from the classified service. Over the years, however, an accurate and complete enumeration of excluded positions has not been maintained in Art. 64A, and numerous laws elsewhere in the Code and Session Laws exempt positions from the classified service. Accordingly, the State Personnel Article Review Committee decided against including a comprehensive list of unclassified service positions in this article. Instead, the Committee believes that it is more appropriate to provide unclassified service status for specific positions of a unit in the law governing that unit.

Former Art. 64A, § 2, as it excluded from the classified service wardens, superintendents, deputy wardens, assistant superintendents, consulting physicians, and chaplains in several institutions now in the Department of Public Safety and Correction, and § 4(3) and (7), which excluded from the classified service some identical positions as well as assistant wardens and deputy assistant wardens at the Maryland House of Correction and the Maryland Penitentiary, are revised in Art. 27, § 684 of the Code.

Former Art. 64A, § 3(4), which excluded from the classified service county supervisors of assessments, is revised in TP § 2-105.

Former Art. 64A, § 3(5), which excluded from the classified service attorneys in or connected with the Office of the Attorney General, is revised in SG § 6-105.

Former Art. 64A, §§ 3(6) and 4(8), which excluded from the classified service the general counsel and assistant general counsels to the Public Service Commission and the shorthand reporter of the Commission, respectively, are revised in Art. 78, § 17 of the Code.

Former Art. 64A, § 3(7), which excluded from the classified service the general counsel and assistant general counsels to the Human Relations Commission, is revised in Art. 49B, § 2 of the Code.
