condition of granting such leave, the Commissioner may require the inmate's agreement to waive his right to contest extradition proceedings. All such orders must be kept on file in the Department. Special leave may only be for the purpose of:

  (1)   Attending educational programs;

  (2)   Improving job skills;

  (3)   Attending trade licensing examinations;

  (4)   Being interviewed for employment;

  (5)   Participating as a volunteer for a governmental agency in an activity serving the general public;

  (6)   Participating in athletic competition; or

  (7)   Participating in civic activities beneficial to the inmate and/or the community.

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

  Error: Extraneous subsection designation in Article 27, § 700D.

  Occurred: As a result of Ch. 59, Acts of 1991, which repealed subsection (b) of Article 27, § 700D.

701.

  For the purpose of increasing the efficiency in the treatment, management, and rehabilitation of persons confined in any of the institutions under the control of the [Department] DIVISION of Correction, there shall be full and complete interchange between the [Department] DIVISION of Correction and the [Department] DIVISION of Parole and Probation of records and all pertinent information relating to each of the persons so confined. It is the duty of [said departments] THESE DIVISIONS to provide the procedures and methods for the interchange of the records and information as required by this section.

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

  Error: Obsolete terminology in Article 27, § 701.

  Occurred: As a result of Ch. 401, Acts of 1970, which created the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services and renamed the Department of Correction and the Department of Parole and Probation and established them as divisions of the Department of Public Safety and Correctional Services.

726A.

  (b)   Except as otherwise provided, a court may assign or order a juvenile who is charged with the commission of a delinquent act, or a criminal defendant who has not been convicted of a crime of violence, to perform community service:
