

Subsection (b)(13) of this section is rephrased to exclude all employees at the University of Maryland System, including the express exclusions in former Art. 64A, § 53(c)(5) for faculty, in former § 53(c)(12) for classified employees, and in former § 53(c)(14) for associate staff.

Subsection (b)(14) of this section is revised to reflect Ch. 209, Acts of 1992, which authorized St. Mary's College to establish an independent personnel system effective July 1, 1993.

Former Art. 64A, § 53(c)(13)(i) and (ii) and § 53(c)(14)(i) and (ii) are deleted as obsolete. These provisions set out requirements for classifying "associate staff" at the University of Maryland System and comparable positions at universities and colleges outside the University of Maryland System, and for adopting grievance procedures. These conditions, which date from Ch. 727, Acts of 1977, have been met at Morgan State University and are no longer applicable to other institutions of higher education.

As to subsection (b)(7) of this section, which excludes employees of the Department of Personnel, see § 10-104 of this subtitle.
