CHAPTER 683

(House Bill 1501)

AN ACT concerning

Agricultural Land Preservation Easements – Releases

FOR the purpose of clarifying the conditions under which the seller of an agricultural land preservation easement may obtain a release in order to construct a dwelling house for the landowner or child of the landowner; providing for the issuance of a preliminary release; establishing certain conditions under which the release is to become final or void; providing for the inclusion of certain information and documents in certain releases; providing for the recordation of certain releases and documents; limiting the ability of the Maryland Agricultural Land Preservation Foundation to restrict certain landowners from obtaining a release; providing certain exceptions to certain limitations on the size of the land released; clarifying that this Act does not interfere with or supersede certain local laws, ordinances, or regulations; and generally relating to the release of land from agricultural land preservation easements.
