

(2) (i) If an individual is charged with a violent crime while released on parole, the parole commission shall immediately issue a warrant charging the individual with violating parole and requiring the individual to be held in custody until the charge is adjudicated.

(ii) If an individual to whom a warrant was issued under subparagraph (i) of this paragraph is found guilty of the violent crime, the individual's parole shall be automatically revoked.

(iii) If an individual to whom a warrant was issued under subparagraph (i) of this paragraph is not found guilty of committing the violent crime, a parole revocation hearing shall be scheduled to determine the advisability of reinstating the individual on parole.

(2) (ii) If an inmate is charged with a crime of violence while released on parole, the inmate's parole shall be automatically revoked.

(ii) If the inmate specified in subparagraph (i) of this paragraph is found not guilty of committing a crime of violence while released on parole, the inmate's parole shall be reinstated.

(b) (1) Each individual charged with a parole violation is entitled to be represented by counsel of his choice or counsel provided by the Public Defender's office.

(2) A record of the hearing shall be kept.

(c) If the Commission member finds, from the evidence, that the parolee has violated a condition of his parole, the Commission member may take the action that he considers appropriate, including:

(1) Revocation of the order of parole;

(2) Continuation on parole;

(i) Without modification of its conditions; or

(ii) With modification of its condition which may include a requirement that all or any part of the remaining parole period be spent in a home detention program; or

(3) Setting a future hearing date for consideration for re-parole.

(d) (1) Subject to PARAGRAPH (2) OF THIS SUBSECTION AND further action by the Commission, if the order of parole is revoked, the prisoner shall serve the remainder of the sentence originally imposed unless the Commission member hearing the parole revocation, in his THE MEMBER'S discretion, grants credit for time between release on parole and revocation of parole.

(2) A PRISONER MAY NOT RECEIVE CREDIT FOR TIME BETWEEN RELEASE ON PAROLE AND REVOCATION OF PAROLE IF:
