SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect October 1, 1994.

May 26, 1994

The Honorable Thomas V. Mike Miller, Jr.
President of the Senate
State House
Annapolis, Maryland 21401

Dear President Miller:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed Senate Bill 761.

Senate Bill 761 would prohibit a person from knowingly buying, selling, or transporting for sale or profit any human remains or associated funerary objects, except under specified circumstances.

House Bill 141, which was passed by the General Assembly and signed by me on May 26, 1994, accomplishes the same purpose. Therefore, it is not necessary for me to sign Senate Bill 761.

Sincerely,
William Donald Schaefer
Governor

Senate Bill No. 761

AN ACT concerning

Trading in Human Remains and Associated Funerary Objects - Prohibition

FOR the purpose of prohibiting certain persons from buying, selling, or transporting for sale or profit human remains and associated funerary objects under certain circumstances; providing certain exceptions; providing for the construction of this Act; establishing a certain penalty; specifying that human remains and associated funerary objects obtained in violation of this Act are subject to appropriation by the State; defining a certain term; and generally relating to prohibiting certain persons from trading in human remains and associated funerary objects under certain circumstances.
