

(a) A person is guilty of rape in the first degree if the person engages in vaginal intercourse with another person by force or threat of force against the will and without the consent of the other person and:

(5) The person commits the offense in connection with [the breaking and entering of a dwelling house] BURGLARY IN THE FIRST, SECOND, OR THIRD DEGREE.

COMMITTEE NOTE:

This change is primarily stylistic and is intended to conform this section to the new burglary offenses established in this bill. However, this change also expands the current law in this area by making this section applicable to an offense involving the breaking and entering of a storehouse (i.e., second degree burglary) as well as an offense involving the breaking and entering of a dwelling.
