

In subsection (c) of this section, the reference to the "Judges' Retirement System" is added for clarity because the term "contributory plan" is no longer defined.

As to the substitution of the references to "member", "former member", and "retiree" for the former references to "judge" and "former judge", see General Revisor's Note to this title.

Defined terms: "County" § 20-101
 "Former member" § 20-101
 "Judges' Retirement System" § 20-101
 "Member" § 20-101
 "Retiree" § 20-101
 "Retirement allowance" § 20-101

GENERAL REVISOR'S NOTE TO TITLE: Throughout this title references to "member" are substituted for former references to "judge" to reflect that "judge" is no longer a defined term. Former Art. 73B, § 9-101(e), which defined "judge" is revised in § 27-201 as a scope provision for the subtitle on membership. See Revisor's Note to § 27-201 of this title. Similarly the references to "former member" or "retiree" are substituted for the former reference to "former judge" or "retired judge" as appropriate. Also, the use of the defined terms "member", "former member", and "retiree" conforms the provisions in this title to similar provisions in this Division II.

Former Art. 73B, § 9-206, which applied only to court stenographers in the five counties that comprise the second judicial circuit and required the counties to pay a pension to those who serve at least 25 years, is transferred to CJ, § 2-501(d).

Former Art. 73B, § 9-106, which related to the noncontributory plan of the Judges' Retirement Plan, is transferred to the Session Laws. There are no members who participate in the noncontributory plan, so this section is only applicable to those who have retired and are still receiving a retirement allowance. Former Art. 73B, §§ 9-101 and 9-104, which related to both the noncontributory plan and contributory plan, are also transferred to the Session Laws to the extent that they apply to the noncontributory plan.

Former Art. 73B, §§ 9-201 through 9-205, which related to pensions for former judges of the Municipal Court of Baltimore City, the People's Court of Anne Arundel County, Montgomery County, and Prince George's County, and to the former trial magistrates of Calvert County, are transferred to the Session Laws. These sections are limited and now only affect a few retirees.
