

and Mrs Hester Handley, Widow, of said County & State, of the other part, Witnesseth, whereas the said Francis Webb, the party of the first part, is indebted to the said Mrs Hester Handley, the party of the second part, upon certain Writing obligatory under his hand and seal, bearing date the twenty second day of September in the year of Our Lord eighteen hundred & forty, conditioned for the payment of one thousand dollars on the twenty second day of September in the year of Our Lord eighteen hundred and forty two, with legal interest upon the same, as by the said Writing obligatory, reference to the same being had will more fully and at large appear, And whereas for the better securing of the said Mrs Hester Handley, party of the second part, the said Francis Webb, the party of the first part, did on the twenty eighth day of February, in the year of Our Lord eighteen hundred and forty four, execute to the said Mrs Hester Handley, party of the second part, a Bill of Sale of the Crop of Wheat, Oats and Corn, which was at that time sowed and growing on the Farm whereon the said Francis Webb, at that time and now resides, also all the Corn Crops, Potatoes and other produce, which might be thereafter sown, planted and cultivated & raised and grown thereon, with all the Wood which might be cut & prepared for Market, from that time hence, by which it was intended by the said Francis Webb, the party of the first part and understood by the said Mrs Hester Handley, the party of the second part, to convey all the right and interest of the said party of the first part, Francis Webb, in & to & of & concerning, both the Crops of any and every description then growing, and thereafter to be sowed, planted, cultivated or grown - And whereas the said Mrs Hester Handley is in doubt whether such intention clearly appears and is sufficiently expressed in the said forementioned Bill of Sale, and is desirous that the same may be more fully set forth and declared, to all of which the said Francis Webb, the party of the first part is willing, - Now this Indenture Witnesseth, that the said Francis Webb, the party of the first part, as well for and in consideration of the aforesaid debt of one thousand dollars, and for the better securing the payment thereof, with interest thereon, unto the said Mrs Hester Handley, the party of the second part, her executors, administrators and assigns, in discharge of the said obligation, by Writing obligatory, and of the premises herein before recited, as for the further sum of five dollars to him in hand paid at and before the sealing and delivery of these presents, by the said Mrs Hester Handley, the party of the second part, the receipt whereof is hereby acknowledged, hath granted, bargained, sold, released and confirmed, and by these presents doth grant, bargain, sell, release and confirm unto the said Mrs Hester Handley, the party of the second part, her heirs and assigns, all the Crop of Wheat, Oats, Corn, Potatoes, or of whatever else may be now growing or has grown, or may grow during this current year, upon the said Farm on which the said Francis Webb, the party of the first part, does now reside, it being the same upon which he did reside at the time of the execution of the said before mentioned Bill of Sale. To have and to hold the said Crops of Wheat, Oats, Corn, Potatoes, or whatever else may be growing, or may