Thos C. Jones (Seal)

State of Maryland, Dorchester County, to Wit: Be it remembered that on this nineteenth day of May, in the year of our Lord Eighteen hundred and forty six, before me the subscriber, a Justice of the Peace of the State of Maryland, in and for Dorchester County, personally appears Thomas C. Jones, of Dorchester County, and acknowledges the within and above instrument of writing to be his act and deed, and the within and above named Negro Woman Sina to be hereforth manumitted and discharged from all manner of service and servitude to him, his heirs, Executors, administrators and all other persons forever. Taken and acknowledged before

Gardner Bayley
Justice of the Peace.

John C. Henry
Et? to
Negroes Caroline &
Hampton Kennard

Be it remembered that the following Deed of Manumission was recorded May 19. 1846.
Whereas, I, John C. Henry did, in the year Eighteen hundred and seventeen, give unto Nathan Kennard, free negro, his infant daughter, Caroline Kennard, at that time a slave belonging to me and whereas the said Caroline Kennard has from that time to the present been in the possession of the said Nathan Kennard, and he is now desirous that she should be free, and that her freedom may be secured against any possible claim by me or my representatives in future time, Therefore, To all whom it may concern, be it known, that I, John C. Henry, of Dorchester County in the State of Maryland, for divers good causes and considerations, me thereunto moving, have released from Slavery, liberated, manumitted and set free, and by these presents do hereby
