

Also in the introductory language of subsection (a) of this section, the former reference to "information submitted under this subsection", referring to a submission under former Art. 48A, § 494A(c), is deleted as included in the general reference to "information and documents filed ... in compliance with this title".

Also in the introductory language of subsection (a) of this section, the former reference to "copies" of documents is deleted as included in the reference to "information and documents".

In subsection (a)(1) of this section, the reference to "confidential material" is substituted for the former reference to "[material] given confidential treatment" for clarity.

In subsection (b) of this section, the reference to disclosures by "any person" is added to clarify that an insurer may give consent for disclosures to any person.

In subsection (c) of this section, the more general term "make public" is substituted for the former terms "publish" and "publication" for consistency throughout this section.
