

classes by certain recipients, with certain exemptions; providing for the eligibility of a dependent child of a certain age who is a student in secondary school; establishing one-time-only welfare avoidance grants; requiring the Secretary to provide certain child care training under certain circumstances; providing for the utilization of certain individuals for certain child care services; directing the Secretary to revise the schedule of program assistance in a certain way; requiring certain reports; requiring the Secretary to establish a certain evaluation committee; specifying the membership of the evaluation committee; requiring the Secretary to adopt any necessary regulations; defining certain terms; providing for the responsibility of the parents of a minor child under certain circumstances; making provisions of this Act subject to a certain contingency; requiring certain joint applications for federal waivers; requiring the Department of Human Resources and the Department of Economic and Employment Development to work together for certain purposes; requiring the Department of Economic and Employment Development and the Department of Human Resources to undertake certain studies; prohibiting implementation of the Program until a certain period of time after the receipt of a certain report by the General Assembly; limiting use of certain moneys for certain purposes; requiring the Child Support Enforcement Administration of the Department of Human Resources to provide to the Motor Vehicle Administration certain information regarding an obligor who is in arrears for a certain period of time in making child support payments; requiring the Child Support Enforcement Administration to follow certain procedures before certifying an obligor to the Motor Vehicle Administration; authorizing certain persons to appeal the existence of or amount of child support arrearage; requiring the Motor Vehicle Administration to suspend the driver's license or privilege to drive of an obligor under certain circumstances; requiring the Motor Vehicle Administration to follow certain procedures before suspending the driver's license or privilege to drive of an obligor; authorizing the Motor Vehicle Administration to issue a work-restricted driver's license or work-restricted privilege to drive to certain persons; requiring the Motor Vehicle Administration to reinstate a suspended license or privilege to drive under certain circumstances; requiring the Secretary of Human Resources and the Secretary of Transportation to jointly adopt regulations to implement certain provisions of this Act; providing for the nonseverability of the provisions of this Act in the case of a certain referendum vote; providing for the termination of this Act; and generally relating to the reform of welfare in the State and the suspension of a driver's license or privilege for failure to make child support payments; establishing a Child Support Enforcement Privatization Pilot Program in Baltimore City and one Queen Anne's County in the Department of Human Resources; authorizing the Secretary of Human Resources to enter into contracts with companies to privatize all aspects of child support enforcement functions of the Department; requiring the Secretary of Human Resources to assist certain employees in identifying certain positions to which the employee may transfer; providing that before implementing the Pilot Program, the Secretary shall hire a consultant to help design the Pilot Program and to help develop a request for proposal to transfer all aspects of child support enforcement; prohibiting the payment to the contractors from coming from certain funds; prohibiting the payment to the contractors from exceeding a certain rate; requiring the contractors to employ certain current Child Support Enforcement Administration employees at a certain salary and benefit level and for a certain period of time; requiring a request for proposal to transfer