

Further, provided that ~~$1,000,000~~ $500,000 of this appropriation for advertising may not be expended until the budget committees receive a report on the Lottery Agency's actions to educate and notify its players about the programs available to treat compulsive gambling and the budget committees have had 45 days to review and comment on the report. The committees believe that the Lottery Agency should explore the following options to address this issue: printed notices on all lottery game tickets, public service radio and television advertising spots. The Lottery Agency in conjunction with DHMH shall submit a report to the budget committees on this subject by October 1, 1995.....
