May 24, 1995

The Honorable Casper R. Taylor, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Delegates
State House
Annapolis MD 21401

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed House Bill 252.

This bill increases the monetary limit of a surety bond that can be issued by the Maryland Small Business Development Financing Authority from $250,000 to $750,000.

Senate Bill 178, which was passed by the General Assembly and signed by me on May 9, 1995, accomplishes the same purpose. Therefore, it is not necessary for me to sign House Bill 252.

Sincerely,
Parris N. Glendening
Governor

House Bill No. 252

AN ACT concerning

Maryland Small Business Development Financing Authority – Surety Bond Program

FOR the purpose of altering the maximum monetary limit of certain surety bonds issued by the Maryland Small Business Development Financing Authority; and generally relating to the Authority's surety bond program.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,
