SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect October 1, 1995.

May 24, 1995

The Honorable Casper R. Taylor, Jr.
Speaker of the House of Delegates
State House
Annapolis MD 21401

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed House Bill 1024.

This bill proposes to make it a misdemeanor for a person to drive or attempt to drive any vehicle while the person has 0.10 percent alcohol in their body.

Senate Bill 256, which was passed by the General Assembly and will be signed by me on May 25, 1995, accomplishes the same purpose. Therefore, it is not necessary for me to sign House Bill 1024.

Sincerely,
Parris N. Glendening
Governor

House Bill No. 1024

AN ACT concerning

Drunk Driving - Intoxication Per Se - Penalties

FOR the purpose of making it a misdemeanor for a person to drive or attempt to drive any vehicle while the person has a certain alcohol concentration in the person's body as determined at the time of testing; repealing a provision that establishes that a certain alcohol concentration is prima facie evidence that a person was driving while intoxicated; making certain conforming changes to provisions of law relating to homicide by motor vehicle or vessel while intoxicated; making certain clarifying changes; defining certain terms; and generally relating to penalties for drunk driving and intoxication per se.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,
