35.02.02.01 Maryland House of Correction
General Fund Appropriation, provided that $750,000 of the general fund appropriation for the Division of Correction may only be expended to upgrade the perimeter security system at the Maryland House of Correction and the Maryland House of Correction Annex. This will improve security and, once the system is installed, allow the department to reduce personnel and operating costs associated with monitoring perimeter security. As a result of the savings associated with improved perimeter security, the Division of Correction shall abolish 27 positions by June 30, 1996
