

$250,000 of this appropriation is contingent upon submission of a report indicating how funds will be allocated to recipients. Further provided that it is the intent of the General Assembly that the Transitional Emergency Medical and Housing Assistance Program shall be implemented in a cost effective manner which provides appropriate services to eligible persons in need. In the event the amounts herein appropriated prove insufficient to operate the program, the Governor is hereby authorized and encouraged: (1) to increase the Special Fund Appropriation to the extent additional revenues become available, and (2) to increase the General Fund Appropriation: (a) by transferring funds from existing operating appropriations in the departments of Human Resources and Housing and Community Development or, (b) in the event that funds are not available from within existing appropriations, by requesting a deficiency appropriation for this purpose at the 1996 Session.
