465A.

No person, firm, or corporation having any connection whatsoever with the settlement of real estate transactions involving land situated and lying in this State shall, for the purpose of soliciting, obtaining, retaining, or arranging any real estate settlement or real estate settlement business, pay to or receive from, any other person, firm, or corporation any fee, compensation, gift (except promotional or advertising materials for general distribution), thing of value, rebate, or other consideration, including loans and advancements of commissions or deposit moneys. Any person, firm, or corporation violating the terms of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be subject to a fine not to exceed $1,000 or to imprisonment for not more than 6 months or both. Every violation of this section shall constitute a separate offense and shall be punishable as such. Nothing herein contained shall be construed as preventing the payment of commissions to agents who have been duly licensed as such by the State Insurance Department. Nothing herein shall prohibit the referral of any such business from one attorney to another attorney, or prohibit any professional fee arrangement between attorneys in such cases, if the referral or professional fee arrangement does not violate § 17-605 of the Business Occupations and Professions Article.

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Obsolete cross-reference in Article 27, § 465A. This section previously referred to § 16-605 of the Business Occupations and Professions Article.
