

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Omitted conjunction in Article 33, § 3-2B(f)(1).

Occurred: Ch. 370, Acts of 1994.

6-4.

(b) The successor candidate for Governor designated by the candidate for Lieutenant Governor or the candidate for Lieutenant Governor exercising his option to designate himself as the candidate for Governor and the candidate appointed by him for Lieutenant Governor shall file either his certificate of candidacy or his change of candidacy with the State Administrative Board of Election Laws as follows:

(2) If the former candidate died or was disqualified less than 45 days before the day of the primary, the filing required by this subsection shall be completed prior to the sixth day following the day of the death or disqualification. However, a filing required by this [subparagraph] PARAGRAPH may not be completed less than five days prior to the day of the election. If the death or disqualification occurred less than ten days prior to the day of the election and if no filing required by this [subparagraph] PARAGRAPH is completed, the unit shall remain on the ballot and, if nominated, the position of candidate for Governor shall be filled as if the death or disqualification had occurred after the primary election.

DRAFTER'S NOTE:

Error: Incorrect internal cross-reference in Article 33, § 6-4(b)(2).

Occurred: Ch. 706, Acts of 1976.

11-1.

(d) Within ten days of the adoption thereof a copy of the constitution and bylaws shall be filed with the State Administrative Board of Election Laws. Such constitution and bylaws shall be adopted not later than six months after the first statewide general election following the first statewide primary election in which the political party is required to nominate candidates for public office. If a constitution and bylaws [is] ARE not adopted and filed within the times aforesaid, then the political party shall lose its status as a political party for purposes of this article, until such time as it again complies with the requirements of § 4B-1 of this article. Once a political party has filed a permanent constitution and bylaws with the State Administrative Board of Election Laws, further filing after each primary election shall not be required, but any amendments to the constitution and bylaws shall be filed with the State Administrative Board of Election Laws within ten days after adoption. The State Administrative Board of Election Laws shall also be notified of the names and addresses of the persons elected as officers or as members of the governing body of the political party.