CHAPTER 296

(House Bill 1068)

AN ACT concerning

Medicare Supplement Policies

FOR the purpose of limiting the applicability of certain provisions of the Insurance Code to Medicare supplement policies; requiring certain disclosures in certain policies; requiring the disclosure of any automatic renewal premium increases based on age in certain policies; repealing an exemption from disclosure for requirements for basic, catastrophic, or major medical policies and single premium, nonrenewable policies; amending certain definitions; and generally relating to the Maryland Medicare Supplement Act and conforming that Act to certain federal requirements.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,
