

that make federal funds available for a program satisfying the provisions of this Act, the Secretary of Human Resources shall pursue waivers of provisions of the Social Security Act necessary to carry out this Act. If the required waivers have not been approved by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services and the U.S. Department of Agriculture on or before December 31, 1996, the Secretary of Human Resources shall identify those provisions of this Act that require such waivers may not be implemented for which waivers were not approved and those provisions shall be null and void and of no force and effect as of January 1, 1997.

SECTION 11. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That any savings the Family Investment Program, as of July 1 of each year, anticipates achieving during the current fiscal year through caseload reductions or other reductions in the total amount of cash benefits actually paid to families compared to the total amount of cash assistance benefits to families budgeted shall be available for reallocation within the budget of the Department to support activities through local departments of social services as follows:

(1) 10% of the savings to the demonstration projects created in § 53 of Article 88A of the Code as enacted by this Act; and

(2) 45% of the savings that were generated for the 2-year period following the effective date of this Act shall be allocated in accordance with the savings achieved by each local department of social services; and

(2) the balance

(3) 45% of the savings to child care, work activities, welfare avoidance, drug treatment for targeted recipients, emergency funds for applicants and recipients, administration to the extent that additional administrative costs are required to effectively implement this program, or any other direct service to applicants or recipients that the Secretary deems appropriate to further the purposes of this Act.

SECTION 12. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the Secretary of Human Resources, the Secretary of Housing and Community Development, and the Secretary of Health and Mental Hygiene shall jointly develop a pilot project to administer "second chance homes" to provide supervised living arrangements and health care to needy teen parents and their children. The second chance home pilot project shall involve no more than 20 teen parents and their children. The pilot project shall begin on or before December 31, 1996, and shall operate for no more than 3 years. The Secretary of Human Resources, the Secretary of Housing and Community Development, and the Secretary of Health and Mental Hygiene shall report to the General Assembly on the success of the first year of operation of the pilot project before the start of the 1998 Session of the General Assembly.

SECTION 13. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act is not intended to require any additional commitment of funds or resources from county or municipal governments to implement or administer the Family Investment Program or its component parts. The programs established by this Act are State programs, and are intended to be supported through State and federal funding.

SECTION 14. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That the Income Maintenance Administration be renamed the Family Investment Administration and that