(2) The JUVENILE court may order the parent of a child, a child, or both to make restitution to:

(i) The victim;

(ii) Any governmental entity, including the Criminal Injuries Compensation Board; or

(iii) A third party payor, including an insurer, that has made payment to the victim to compensate the victim for a property loss under paragraph (1)(i) of this subsection or pecuniary loss under paragraph (1)(ii) of this subsection.

(3) (i) Restitution payments to the victim have priority over restitution payments to a third party payor.

(ii) If the victim has been compensated for the victim's loss by a third party payor, the JUVENILE court may order restitution payments to the third party payor in the amount that the third party payor compensated the victim.

(4) Payment of restitution to a victim under this section has priority over payment of restitution to any governmental entity.

(b) Considering the age and circumstances of a child, the JUVENILE court may order the child to make restitution to the wronged person personally.

(c) (1) A judgment rendered under this section may not exceed:

(i) As to property stolen, destroyed, converted, or unlawfully obtained, the lesser of the fair market value of the property or $10,000;
