

(3) Be notified in advance of dates and times of juvenile court proceedings in the case and be notified if the court proceedings to which they have been summoned will not proceed as scheduled;

(4) During any phase of the investigative proceedings or court proceedings, be provided, to the extent practicable, a waiting area that is separate from a child alleged to be delinquent and the family and friends of a child alleged to be delinquent;

(5) Be informed by the appropriate juvenile justice agency of financial assistance, criminal injuries compensation, and any other social services available as a result of being a victim and receive assistance or information on how to apply for services;

(6) On written request, be kept reasonably informed by the police or the State's Attorney of the apprehension of a child alleged to be delinquent, closing of the case, and an office to contact for information about the case;

(7) Be advised of the right to have stolen or other property promptly returned and, on written request, have the property promptly returned by law enforcement agencies when means can be employed to otherwise satisfy evidentiary requirements for prosecution unless there is a compelling law enforcement reason for retaining it; and

(8) Be informed, in appropriate cases, by the State's Attorney of the right to request restitution and, on request, be provided assistance in the preparation of the request and advice as to the collection of the payment of any restitution awarded.

(b) The Department of Juvenile Justice shall be responsible for making the guidelines available to the agencies involved.

(c) Nothing in this section may be construed as creating a cause of action against any public official, employee, public agency, State or local government, or any agency responsible for the guidelines set forth in this section.

DRAFTER'S NOTE: This section is transferred from CJ § 3-836.

There are no changes.

As to the definitions of "delinquent act", "victim", and "witness" see CJ § 3-801.
