

REVISOR'S NOTE TO SECTION:

Former Art. 48B, § 1(2), which defined "Division" to mean the Insurance Division, is deleted as obsolete. The former Insurance Division is now the Insurance Administration. See § 2-101 of this article.

Former Art. 48B, § 1(3), which defined "Commissioner" to mean the Commissioner of Insurance or the Commissioner's duly authorized representatives, is deleted as unnecessary in light of the defined term "Commissioner" in § 1-101 of this article.

Former Art. 48B, § 1(5), which defined "applicant" to mean a person applying for a certificate of authority or for renewal of a certificate of authority under this article, is deleted as unnecessary. In the context of the provisions in which the term "applicant" is used, it is clear what applicant is referred to in each provision. Thus, a separate definition of the term is unnecessary.

Former Art. 48B, § 1(11), which defined "person" to mean an individual, firm, association, partnership, corporation, or other legal entity, is deleted as unnecessary in light of the defined term "person" in § 1-101 of this article.
