

[14-902.

A false representation prohibited by this subtitle includes:

(1) Any oral or written statement that directly or indirectly tends to deceive or otherwise lead a reasonable individual to believe that a nonkosher product is kosher; and

(2) The possession for sale of any nonkosher product in a place of business that advertises the sale of only kosher products.]

[14-903.

(a) A person may not sell or offer for sale any food that he falsely represents to be kosher or kosher for Passover.

(b) A person may not falsely represent any food or the contents of any package or container to be kosher or kosher for Passover by having or permitting to be inscribed on it, in any language, the words "kosher", "parve", or "glatt".

(c) (1) In this subsection, "Hebrew symbol" means:

(i) Any Hebrew word or letter; or

(ii) Any symbol, emblem, sign, insignia, or other mark that simulates a Hebrew word or letter.

(2) In connection with any place of business that sells or offers for sale any food, a person may not display, whether in a window, door, or other location on or in the place of business, in any handbill or other printed matter distributed in or outside of the place of business, or otherwise in any advertisement, any Hebrew symbol unless he also displays in conjunction with the Hebrew symbol, in English letters of at least the same size as the characters used in the Hebrew symbol, the words "we sell kosher meat and food only", "we sell nonkosher meat and food only", or "we sell both kosher and nonkosher meat and food", as the appropriate case may be.

(d) (1) In this subsection, "fresh" means unprocessed other than by salting or soaking.

(2) A person may not sell or offer for sale, as kosher, any fresh meat or poultry unless the words "soaked and salted" or "not soaked and salted", as the appropriate case may be, is marked:

(i) On the package label; or

(ii) If the product is not packaged, on a sign prominently displayed in conjunction with the product.

(3) A person may not sell or offer for sale, as kosher, any fresh meat or poultry that is identified as "soaked and salted" unless the product has been soaked and salted in a manner which makes it kosher.]
