(I) ON THE PACKAGE LABEL; OR

(II) IF THE PRODUCT IS NOT PACKAGED, ON A SIGN PROMINENTLY DISPLAYED IN CONJUNCTION WITH THE PRODUCT.

[14-905.

- (a) A person may not prepare for sale, whether for consumption in his place of business or elsewhere, any food that he falsely represents to be kosher or kosher for Passover.
- (b) A person may not falsely represent to the public that any food sold or offered for sale, whether for consumption in his place of business or elsewhere, is or will be prepared and served as kosher or otherwise in accordance with orthodox Jewish religious rules and requirements.
- (c) A person may not prepare or serve, as kosher, any food, whether for consumption in his place of business or elsewhere, if, in the same place of business, he also prepares or serves nonkosher food, unless he:
- (1) Keeps and uses separate and distinctly labeled or marked dishes and utensils for each type of food; and
- (2) Includes on each sign and display advertisement in or about his premises in block letters at least 4 inches high the words "kosher and nonkosher food prepared and sold here".]

[14-906.] 14-903.

A person may not advertise any food for sale or any place of business as being under rabbinical or other kosher supervision unless the advertisement identifies the name of the rabbi or other person that supervises or otherwise certifies the product or place of business as kosher.

[14-907.] 14-904.

- (a) In this section, "packaged food product" means a food product that:
- (1) In advance of sale, is put up or packaged; in any manner, in units suitable for retail sale; and
 - (2) Is not intended for consumption at its point of manufacture.
- (b) A person may not sell or offer for sale, as kosher [or], kosher for Passover, OR AS BEING UNDER RABBINICAL OR OTHER KOSHER SUPERVISION any packaged food product unless:
- (1) It has a kosher identification securely attached to the outside of the package; and
- (2) This identification was attached to the package by the producer or packer of the product at his place of business.
