CHAPTER 390

(House Bill 53)

AN ACT concerning

Juvenile Court Records – Access and Use for Pretrial Release

FOR the purpose of providing that a certain requirement of confidentiality of juvenile court records does not prohibit access to and use of the court record under certain circumstances for the purpose of determining a defendant's eligibility for pretrial release; authorizing the Court of Appeals to adopt certain rules to implement this Act; and generally relating to access to and use of certain juvenile court records concerning an adjudication of delinquency under certain circumstances.
