

(b) In exercising its jurisdiction over the custody, guardianship, visitation, or support of a child, an equity court may:

- (1) direct who shall have the custody or guardianship of a child, pendente lite or permanently;
- (2) determine who shall have visitation rights to a child;
- (3) decide who shall be charged with the support of the child, pendente lite or permanently;
- (4) from time to time, set aside or modify its decree or order concerning the child; or
- (5) issue an injunction to protect a party to the action from physical harm or harassment.

(c) [Except as provided in subsection (d) of this section, this] THIS section does not take away or impair the jurisdiction of a juvenile court or a criminal court with respect to the custody, guardianship, visitation, and support of a child.

[(d) In Montgomery County, if an adoption or guardianship with the right to consent to adoption or long-term care short of adoption is ordered by the equity court, as to a child previously adjudicated to be a child in need of assistance, a neglected child, an abused child, or a dependent child, the jurisdiction of a juvenile court with regard to these issues is terminated.]

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect October 1, 1997.

Approved May 8, 1997.
