

to receive certain notices under certain circumstances; authorizing a tribunal of this State to exercise personal jurisdiction over a nonresident under certain circumstances; establishing that certain laws and procedures apply when a tribunal of this State exercises personal jurisdiction over a nonresident; altering certain procedures relating to reconciliation of child support orders issued by two or more states; authorizing the Attorney General to order a child support agency to perform certain duties ~~or to perform certain services~~ under certain circumstances; providing that certain hearings are presumed to have been requested primarily for delay under certain circumstances; establishing that nonparentage is not a defense to certain proceedings under certain circumstances; prohibiting certain documents from being excluded from evidence in certain proceedings on certain grounds with a certain exception; ~~authorizing a certain inference to be drawn from a refusal to testify in certain proceedings~~; repealing certain requirements that certain notices be given by first-class mail; establishing certain requirements for certain employers concerning income withholding orders; granting a tribunal of this State jurisdiction to enforce and modify certain out-of-state child support orders under certain circumstances; ~~authorizing the Child Support Enforcement Administration to receive certain information from financial institutions and public utilities~~; requiring financial institutions, public service companies, and energy providers to provide certain information to the Child Support Enforcement Administration under certain circumstances; ~~providing that the child support guidelines may be grounds for requesting modification of a child support award under certain circumstances~~; altering certain procedures for certain employing units reporting certain information about certain employees; requiring the Child Support Enforcement Administration to establish a State disbursement unit for collection and disbursement of support payments in certain cases; requiring the Director of the Child Support Enforcement Administration to make a certain report to the General Assembly; requiring the Child Support Enforcement Administration to pay certain fees to certain financial institutions, public service companies, and energy providers; providing immunity from liability for certain financial institutions, employers, public service companies, energy providers, and labor unions for disclosing certain information to the Child Support Enforcement Administration and for taking certain other actions in good faith; altering certain definitions; providing for a delayed effective date for certain provisions of this Act; making certain technical and conforming changes; and generally relating to child support and the enforcement of child support obligations.

BY repealing and reenacting, without amendments,

Article - Family Law

Section 2-402 and 5-1039

Annotated Code of Maryland

(1991 Replacement Volume and 1996 Supplement)

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,

Article - Family Law

Section ~~2-402~~, 5-1002, 5-1010, 5-1011, 5-1020, 5-1027, 5-1028.1, 5-1029, 5-1032, 5-1033, ~~5-1039~~, 5-1048, 10-101, ~~10-108~~, 10-111, 10-131, 10-301(h), (q), and