(d) A prisoner employed in the community under a "work-release" plan shall surrender to the Division of Correction his total earnings, less payroll deductions required by law. The Division shall deduct from these earnings, in the following order of priority, an amount determined to be the cost to the State of providing food, lodging and clothing for the prisoner; fees assessed under Article 41, § 4-104 of the Code; the actual and necessary food, travel and other expenses of the prisoner when released from actual confinement under the program; the amount which the prisoner may be legally obligated to pay for the support of his dependents, which amount shall be paid to the dependents through the local social services administration in the county or city in which the dependents reside; and the amount ordered to be paid by the court as restitution. Any balance remaining after these deductions and payments shall be credited to the prisoner's account and shall be paid to him upon release. In those cases in which the prisoner's final earnings under a [work-release] "WORK-RELEASE" plan are required to satisfy the
