MARYLAND STADIUM AUTHORITY

The Maryland Stadium Authority is authorized to prepare various studies, including economic feasibility studies, site studies, financing studies, and design review, with respect to the contemplated acquisition and construction of a privately-financed motor sports raceway project in the Middle River area of Baltimore County to be located on a site of approximately 1,000 acres situated west of Earls Road and north of the Amtrak train line in the vicinity of the Glenn L. Martin State Airport. The authority is permitted to enter into feasibility and study contracts, engage consultants, make recommendations, and take other actions related to this purpose. Prior to engaging in any such study activities, the Maryland Stadium Authority shall report to the budget committees on the proposed budget of the studies and the sources of funds.

It is the intent of the General Assembly that the State's contribution to the construction of the Baltimore Ravens football stadium not exceed the level outlined in the financing plan as approved by the Board of Public Works on March 27, 1996. The General Assembly further reiterates its
