(X) LIFE INSURER.

"LIFE INSURER" MEANS AN INSURER IN LIFE INSURANCE.

SPECIAL REVISOR'S NOTE: As enacted by Ch. 36, Acts of 1995, this subsection was new language derived without substantive change from the first clause of the first sentence of former Art. 48A, § 64, except as that clause described life insurance. Chapter _____, Acts of 1997, repealed and reenacted this subsection without change.

The second clause of the first sentence of former § 64, which stated that life insurers "shall be subject to all the requirements of law applicable to such insurers", was deleted by Ch. 36 as unnecessary. Substantive provisions of this article that apply to life insurers expressly state that application.

The second sentence of former Art. 48A, § 64, which stated that the definition of life insurer "shall not be construed so as to restrict the definition of 'insurer'", was deleted by Ch. 36 as unnecessary since such construction would be unreasonable.
